More Women Need to Take Folic Acid

Despite the fact that the B vitamin folic acid can help prevent serious birth defects of the brain and spinal cord, a recent survey conducted by the March of Dimes indicates that most women of childbearing age are not taking the vitamin.

For several years, the March of Dimes has been working to educate women about the benefits of multivitamins containing folic acid.

Helping you realize the full potential of your assets.

We have innovative solutions for investors who have wealth tied up in concentrated equity positions or stock options.

Having a substantial portion of your wealth concentrated in a single equity position or in unexercised stock options can present unique challenges. Perhaps you need cash but don't want to decrease your equity ownership in a firm? Perhaps you want to lock in unrealized gains? Perhaps you are uncomfortable with having so much of your wealth tied to a single company but face limitations on taking traditional steps to diversify your portfolio?

Whatever your situation, PNC Advisors can help. Through PNC
